Weekly Learning Review - Year 5

11.10.21

In Maths this week we have been:

- Counting forwards and backwards with negative numbers.
- Reading and writing Roman Numerals.
- Practising our arithmetic skills.

In English this week we have been:

- Practising our skimming and scanning skills.
- Ordering quotes and events from texts.
- Learning to spell homophones.
- Redrafting sentences.

Other:

- In Music, we sang songs about Victorian schools and inventions. We also practised playing songs on the glockenspiels.
- We were exploring reversible and irreversible changes in science.
- This week in art, we created our own art using oil pastels. This was inspired by Picasso.
- In RSE, we explored how friendships can change over time.

This week's homework:

- Maths: Complete the maths key skill practise.
- Reading: Regularly reading including your Oxford Owl book.
- Spelling: Learn the 8 homophones and their meanings.
