Weekly Learning Review - Year 4

Week beginning 13/3/23

In Maths this week we have been:

- Subtracting fractions within a whole.
- Subtracting mixed and improper fractions.
- Practising our times tables.

In English this week we have been :

- Diary writing based on our class book 'The Boy in The Girl's Bathroom'
- Recapping adverbs.
- Recapping key grammar terms.

Other:

- In geography we have looked at key local areas looking at physical and human features.
- We have been rehearsing for our school play.
- In RE we have been learning Palm Sunday.
- In Science we are excited about British Science Week. Rob Barsby from Aerospax came to visit us in assembly to tell us about his job as a pilot. He flies planes with pyrotechnics-we were so impressed! We are using his inspiration assembly in our Science learning!
